Dear Senator Moynihan:

Thank you very much for your thoughtful invitation to attend the first annual Raoul Wallenberg award ceremony in New York March 4, 1987.

I very much regret that due to a firm prior commitment, I will not be able to attend. I am sure it will be a successful and memorable evening, I wish that I could join you in doing honor to one of the real heroes of the twentieth century, Raoul Wallenberg.

I hope you will extend both my regrets and my very best wishes to the organizers of this event.

Sincerely,

Richard W. Murphy
Assistant Secretary
Bureau of Near Eastern and
South Asian Affairs

The Honorable
Daniel Patrick Moynihan,
United States Senate.
